

Canberra High School Canberra High School Monet French Exhibition 2019

— ESTABLISHED 1938 —

Dear Parents/Carers,

as part of the French program at Canberra High school, on Friday 30th August year 7 students studying French have the opportunity to attend the excursion at the National Gallery of Australia. The exhibition features Claude Monet's pioneering painting Impression, Soleil levant (Impression, Sunrise) 1872, from which Impressionism takes its name. This is an exclusive exhibition in which students will learn about important French artists, French culture and its influence in the world.
